The defendant shall be required to be at this residence at all times except for approved absences for gainful employment, community service, religious services, medical care, educational or training programs and at other such times as may be specifically authorized by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall wear an electronic monitoring device and follow electronic monitoring procedures. CAUSE

The offender has completed her term of home confinement, however she is experiencing a lot of financial hardship, and is having difficulty satisfying the balance. Based on these facts it is the Probation Office's recommendation that the balance owed on the home confinement be remitted, allowing the money collected during supervision to be better served, applied towards the restitution balance.
